Class of 2008

Spring 2008

Dear Class of 2008:

As you head off in various directions, it is my hope that you will take with you from Mount St. Joseph Academy the experience of having encountered at least one true friend. In the writings of the West, whether in philosophy, theology or literature, true friendship is acknowledged again and again as essential for meaningful, authentic human life.

An authentic human life makes room for encountering the Other as Other, as the person that he or she is. True friendship is possible only between those persons who strive for goodness. Goodness seeks what is true and, thus, a true friend is imbued with a capacity for and an attitude of unconditional love.

True friends share much in common. What they share most is that they desire for the Other what is good. They desire that their friend flourishes – lives – in the fullest sense of the term.

True friends, therefore, are willing to risk speaking the truth to each other, even at the cost of the Other walking away. True friends know what it is to sacrifice for the Other unconditionally – with no concern for self-benefit.

If you were to ask me if there is a way of knowing if someone is a true friend – or if someone had the capacity to be a true friend -- I would say this in response: A person who is a true friend loves what is good. One of the sure signs of knowing whether or not someone loves what is good is in how that person treats others, including those who are not the most likable people. Those who speak kind words about others, reach out to others, who show dignity and respect for others – including to those they do not like -- are more likely to have the capacity to be true friends. Those who are vicious towards others, lie and use others – including those they do not like – do not desire what is good and do not have the capacity for true friendship.

In paraphrasing an ancient text, remember that a true friend is a sturdy shelter, a great treasure beyond price. If you find one true friend in life, then you have found the greatest of treasures. If you find one, then your life has been well-lived.

I wish you a life well-lived. .

Sincerely,

Paolo E. Zancanaro

Great fun these last four years..... Never a dull moment! Will never forget the troubles, but hopefully in time I will., between sleep overs, scary movies, swimming, and so much more. Krysta, your house was forever fun. The haunted house, movies, candy and sleep over: one of the best nights of my life! Krysta: always there, attention span of a fish though (lol) David: stop stressing out, relax, always making fun of me (ditto though) Steven:"Ye Haw", you're such a Redneck, will never forget anatomy and Health, John: Freshman; not much more to say (never say " go Raiders" again though, I know where you live!) Jenn; Best Friends, (finally!) Lil' doodz/Bizon: have fun with this nickname.

In 10 years maybe I'll be chillin' on a beach somewhere and drinking out of a coconut shell. If that doesn't happen I'll either work 9 to 5 in a Scranton PA Paper Co. or be breaking into the Broadcast Journalism world in San Diego with my good friend Brick Tamland. I'll spend my free time volunteering at Derek's Center for kids who can't read good. Regardless I'll be having fun, living life to the fullest and not having anymore tardy detentions.

My will: Tom; I leave some tardy detentions, a copy of zoolander and the warning that "mostly they come out at night...mostly" . Alessandra: a plug and some untoasted bagels. Hillary & Courtney: I leave Cheerleading. Hah. Kate Macauley I leave my brother, make sure he doesn't do anything too stupid. Spencer, Matt and Mike Sherwin : some change & the lunch table. Ian Patch gets 9 o' clock on Thursdays and the amazingness of Jim Halpert. Sarah Jung: I leave you music department of MSJ and Briana and Kaitlyn I leave you Mrs. Bagley and Drama practices. To Alex I leave a cast just in case he breaks his leg again and some napkins for lunch. Ryan Carter: I leave a ugly car that he can rev really loud at the bridge in Proctor. To Tyler Sanborn & Josh Scaria : I give some Godberries to make an energy drink out of.

Congrats!!! We've made it to the end. Bittersweet, but its here. Now it's time to form our lives for the future. Take hold of this bull by the horns, gain control and take it where you want to. In hindsight, the road seemed rocky but now it doesn't seem so bad. It just roughed us up to move forward. Always continue forward, but never forget the past. However, do not live the past. Live for the future. In the mess of all of this don't lose sight of who you are.

To all friends:
Good Luck. Enjoy the future. This is not an end.

In 10 years..... I will be:

KAG- Enter your freshmen year with strength. It might seem a little strange at first, but you will discover new things at new places. Make the most out of these years. Enjoy it. Good luck with Steve. KEG- Good times, even the bad, found a way to enjoy all them. Remembering them all, but focusing in the best. Man, what a journey, though not ended. Take your dreams and make the come true. Don't live in the fear for what is next just prepare yourself for it. 070211. Take yourself to your highest potential. Never lower your potential. DEB- Don't stay too independent. Ready to start anew. New places, new people, and new surroundings, but no regrets. NEDF '07SRK- Meat Loaf... Got yourself in the right frame of mind.... Kate's on her way watch your back!! As goes to everyone, don't think twice to text or call at anytime if you need something. I am certain that I will never pass up a friend and am always willing to talk. VRN- Good Luck, your future is bright. Always try to reach the max. Settle at nothing less. However obtaining the max can be timely. Never rush to get there, enjoy the time. Art!!! Indifferent!!!LT- Duck!!! It's on the roof. Wait, wait. Handshake... POP! Hey. Be smart and stay motivated. I know you can make it to where ever you want to go. You have a lot of talent, put it where you can make the most of it. Don't forget to text me more often. ECG- Thanks for listening. Mad?!! NEDF '07, good times good times. 4th period art so good. College is near. HS drama is over. BPR- Don't waste your time, it is and forever will be limited. Spend every second wisely. DO what you want to. Find reassurance in your interests. Don't limit yourself. That's why when I leave I pass on to you one final year to discover fully who you are and where you aspire to be in your future.

Division III State Title Is Won by Marcin Katila

Mount St. Joseph Academy's Marcin Kalita crossed the line first to become state champion in the races at the Vermont Cross Country Championships on Saturday October 27th at Thetford

Kalita, a junior exchange student from Poland, was one of only three Mounties coach Tim Jones brought to the race. He was a 400 and 800 meter runner in Poland and this is his first fling with cross country.

"It was hard," Kalita said of running over a course in the deplorable conditions.

Kalita clocked 19:01 to win easily over Peoples Academy's Matt Piper's 19:55. Academy

A Season of Ups and Downs ends In Championship

A season that commenced with a nationalistic flap during a local rivalry game ended in championship glory on the ice at Gutterson Fieldhouse for the Mount St. Joseph boys ice hockey team. The addition of a trio of Finnish players and the playing of the Finnish national anthem before a home game with Rutland High School generated a firestorm of letters to the editor and a display of nationalism fitting for the Cold War.

Later, there was a five-game losing streak, problems with the team's defense, some personnel issues and the fact that the Mounties no-how or no-way could beat either the Hartford Hurricanes or the Burr and Burton Bulldogs during the regular season.

But all that was wiped clean from the memory banks with a stunning performance in the playoffs. MSJ scored 27 goals, shattering the record of 21 for a four-game playoff series set by North Country. Ultimately, the Mounties capped the season and avenged three losses to Burr and Burton with a 6-3 triumph in the title game to claim their first title since 1992.

I sometimes wish you were still small
Not yet so big and strong and tall
For when I think of yesterday
I close my eyes and see you play.*

*I often miss that little boy
Who pestered me to buy a toy
Who filled my days with pure delight
From early morn to late at night*

*We watch our children change and grow
As seasons come, then quickly go,
But our God has a perfect plan
To shape a boy into a man.*

*Today my son, I'm proud of you
For all the thoughtful things you do
I'll love you till my days are done,
And I'm so grateful you're my SON
Love Mom*

2008

YEAR IN REVIEW

2007-2008: We'll always remember it as the year...

Well, the year of the what, exactly? It was the year of the high-tech iPhone, but also the year that good old-fashioned letter writing became popular among students. It was the year that Southern California burned while the Midwest was crippled by ice. This year we saw the bottom fall out of the mortgage market and a bridge in Minneapolis. In Washington, Alberto Gonzales and Karl Rove stepped down; in Boston, the Celtics, Sox and Patriots stepped up. In theaters, Bourne, Shrek, Spidey, and Pirates all came back for "Threequels," but our favorite TV shows were cut off after only a few episodes due to the writers' strike.

And so, with Hollywood on hold and nothing good on TV, we decided to focus our attention on re-thinking our lifestyle and coming up with ways to produce less waste and use less energy. Being Earth-friendly became fashion-forward. Champions of planet preservation are hoping that environmentalism catches on as a new lifestyle rather than a flash-in-the-pan fad.

If so, then we may be able to look back and call 2008 "The Year We Saved The Planet."

Fuel-friendly flyer

Boeing brings us a super-efficient airplane, the 787 Dreamliner, which uses 20% less fuel than similarly sized airplanes.

Hate to burst your bubble

The housing bubble finally burst, big time. Defaults on subprime mortgages rise steadily. As a result, a slew of mortgage companies fail and financial institutions recognize losses exceeding $135 billion.

Nobel committee warms up to Gore

Former Vice President Al Gore and the U.N.'s Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change win the 2007 Nobel Peace Prize for their efforts to raise awareness of global warming.

The pen is mightier

Seeking fair compensation for content distributed through the internet and DVD sales, the Writers Guild of America goes on strike against the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers causing reruns, reality TV and game shows to overwhelm the airwaves. The strike costs the entertainment industry over $1 billion, and forces us to watch even more YouTube than ever before.

Don't eat that action figure!

More than 20 million toys made in China are recalled amid concern over items made with toxic lead paints and magnets that pose a choking risk to children.

"Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows"

The final installment of the Harry Potter series breaks sales records as the fastest-selling book ever, selling more than eight million copies in the first 24 hours following its release. Rumor has it that all eight million copies were read immediately, in one sitting, to avoid having the ending spoiled.

California wildfires

A series of wildfires burns across Southern California resulting in the death of at least ten people, the destruction of over 1,500 homes and leaving over 500,000 acres of scorched earth.

"Taps" plays for bottled water

The same people that turned bottled water into a $15 billion industry are now regretful that 38 million plastic bottles a year are made with 1.5 million barrels of oil. Back to tap water, everybody!

Drew Carey, come on down!

After Bob Barker's retirement from hosting "The Price is Right," Drew Carey steps in to host "America's favorite game show."

Of mice and men

By rewinding infected mice's skin cells to an embryonic state and manipulating them to create healthy replacement tissue, scientists grow ever closer to curing Sickle Cell disease in humans.

The tides are turning

More and more people, politicians, and scientists are starting to acknowledge the possibility of global warming as a reality, launching a trend to "go green" and take better care of our planet.

The Cat in the Hat turns 50

In 1954, Ted Geisel (a.k.a. Dr. Seuss) was challenged to write a more exciting version of the boring "Dick and Jane" children's reading books. In 1957, "The Cat In The Hat" was born, and Dr. Seuss's famous feline has been teaching kids to read for 50 years.

Oprah's high school challenge

This revealing new program shows us high school as high schoolers see it - challenging issues much deeper than prom or pimples.

One Laptop Per Child

The idea is simple: provide children with opportunities to learn and explore, and they will do just that. The XO laptop developed by OLPC is built just for kids, and is designed to be affordable for every school-aged child in the world.

Queen Rania of Jordan

With lots of press for her philanthropic work advocating women's and children's rights, including appearances on "The Oprah Winfrey Show," Queen Rania is quickly becoming the Queen a lot of young women are looking up to.

Hillary Clinton

John McCain

Barack Obama

The race for '08

John McCain, Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama begin mudslinging through the Presidential primaries in hopes of becoming a candidate for President in 2008.

A smorgasbord of spoof

Don't have time to see all the big movies of the year? Why bother when there's "Epic Movie," which parodies all of the popular box office hits.

Back in black

In "Spider-Man 3," a strange black sludge bonds with Peter Parker and causes inner turmoil (and a sweet new black costume!) as he battles with new villains, temptations, and revenge.

"Hairspray"

Based on the 1988 cult classic about star-struck teenagers on a local dance show, "Hairspray" puts John Travolta in a dress and shows us a side of him we didn't see in "Saturday Night Fever."

The odds are 13 to 1

Danny Ocean and his crew of high-rolling casino robbers are out for revenge in "Ocean's Thirteen," the third installment of the Las Vegas heist series.

Rink of fire

Will Ferrell and Jon Heder star in "Blades of Glory" as two rival ice skaters banned from competition until a loophole is discovered that allows them to reluctantly skate as a pair.

Bourne again

Still seeking clues about his past and possibly his future, Jason Bourne races around the globe while being pursued by a mysterious assassin in "The Bourne Ultimatum."

One ogre to rule them all

In "Shrek the Third," Shrek's plans to settle down and raise a family are disrupted by the sudden death of King Harold. Rather than take on the duty of ruling Far Far Away, Shrek decides to track down the true heir to the throne, Fiona's cousin, Artie.

Power to the penguin

The penguin has been Hollywood's go-to animal recently. You've seen them march, seen their happy feet dance, and this year, you see them hang ten in "Surf's Up."

"Ghost Rider"

Motorcycle stuntman Johnny Blaze sells his soul to save the life of his beloved, Roxanne Simpson, and becomes "Ghost Rider," a blazing skull-o-justice determined to get his soul back.

Funniest health code violation of 2008

Pixar serves up "Ratatouille," a deliciously funny tale of a French rat named Remy who wants to be a chef despite the obvious problem of being -EEK! - a rat in the kitchen!

"Pirates of the Caribbean: At World's End"

Swashbucklers Will Turner and Elizabeth Swann are allied with Captain Barbossa in a quest to free Captain Jack Sparrow from his mind-blowing trap in Davy Jones' Locker.

Raking in the D'Oh!

After 20 years of small-screen success, "The Simpsons" blow up the big screen in their first feature-length film. The film grosses over $500 million, and leaves everyone singing the Spider-Pig theme song.

"Wild Hogs"

Tired of their humdrum lives, four middle-aged friends decide to temporarily ditch their responsibilities and take a motorcycle trip.

The scariest mom since "Psycho"

The epic poem we all have to read in lit class comes to life on the big screen. "Beowulf" saves the Danes from the indomitable monster Grendel and later, Grendel's mother, who begins killing out of revenge.

"Hot Rod"

Self-proclaimed (yet lousy) stuntman Rod Kimble prepares for the jump of his life - to clear fifteen buses to raise money for his stepfather's life-saving heart operation.

"Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix"

Harry Potter returns to Hogwarts for his fifth year of studies, only to find that the magical community seems to be in a curious state of denial about his recent encounter with the sinister Lord Voldemort.

"Evan Almighty"

God tells Congressman Evan Baxter to build an ark in preparation for a great flood. God forgot to mention that a lengthy white beard and countless pairs of animals were also part of the deal.

Motor Trend's Film of the Year

A war erupts on Earth between the heroic Autobots and the evil Decepticons, leaving the fate of mankind in the hands of a kid and his Camaro (with a little help from Optimus Prime).

MOVIES

"Bus driver - move that bus!"

Ty Pennington and his crew of demolition and renovation experts are back for a fifth season of "Extreme Makeover: Home Edition."

"American Gladiators"

A revamp of the 1989 series, the all-new upgraded version pits recreational athletes against fierce warriors wielding giant Q-tips in the ultimate David & Goliath battle.

Can you be Frank with us?

Celebrity impersonator Frank Caliendo gets his own sketch comedy show, "Frank TV," where he showcases the hundreds of voices that live inside his head.

Bart Simpson is older than he looks

It's a big year for America's Favorite Family, as "The Simpsons" celebrate 20 years on television and 400 episodes.

Bad day at "The Office"

Most of the actors on "The Office" are also the show's writers. Therefore, there are no new episodes produced during the writers' strike, even though scripts had been written.

Holding out for a Hero

With no new episodes in the foreseeable future, fans of "Heroes" turn to the NBC website for "Heroes: Evolutions." Here they get their fix of new stories during the writers' strike.

Sanjaya sits idly as Sparks flies

Seventeen-year-old Jordin Sparks beats out Blake Lewis for the title of "American Idol," while the rest of America breathes a sigh of relief that Sanjaya Malakar was finally voted off the show.

"Samantha Who?"

After becoming the victim of a hit-and-run accident, Samantha Newly develops amnesia and has to rediscover her life, her relationships and herself.

Karma is a funny thing

What goes around, comes around: Could it be that the reason "My Name Is Earl" wins so many entertainment industry awards is because it makes so many people laugh?

The sew must go on

Fortunate for fashionistas, the Writers' Strike didn't affect production of "Project Runway," now in its fourth season.

Dangerous curves ahead

Indy 500 champion Helio Castroneves and his dance partner Julianne Hough show that they're driven to succeed after they win first place in "Dancing with the Stars."

Ugly never looked so good

After a stellar first season, "Ugly Betty" starts its second season with two Golden Globe awards, an Emmy, and two Teen Choice Awards, among others.

More like "Two and Three-Quarters Men"

Since 2003, CBS' "Two and a Half Men" has been a ratings powerhouse. But the older child-actor Angus T. Jones gets, the more they might want to re-think that title.

"The Hills" are alive with controversy

Sure, we like keeping tabs on LC, Heidi, and Audrina - but how "real" is this MTV reality show, anyway?

"Chuck"

One day you're a computer geek working for the Nerd Herd, and the next day your head is full of government intel and you're running secret missions for the CIA ...and you STILL work for the Nerd Herd.

Weirdos in Wisconsin

The CW launches "Aliens in America," a politically incorrect satire about two high school students who just don't feel like they're fitting in - a feeling that 99.9% of high school students can relate to.

"Are You Smarter Than a Fifth Grader?"

Most game shows offer big money, but "Are You Smarter Than a 5th Grader" puts something bigger on the line: pride. Losing contestants have to look into the camera and declare "I am not smarter than a 5th grader."

EMMY AWARD WINNERS:

Comedy Series: "30 Rock"

Variety, Music or Comedy Series: "The Daily Show With Jon Stewart"

Reality-Competition Program: "The Amazing Race"

Actor, Drama Series: James Spader, "Boston Legal"

Actor, Comedy Series: Ricky Gervais, "Extras"

Actress, Drama Series: Sally Field, "Brothers & Sisters"

Actress, Comedy Series: America Ferrera, "Ugly Betty"

"Deal or No Deal"

After three seasons, "Deal or No Deal" has yet to give away the million-dollar prize. As a result they keep adding million-dollar cases, building up to a $100 million cash prize.

A walk in the park

Linkin Park releases "Minutes to Midnight," an album in which a) they experiment with their established sound and draw influences from a wider range of styles, and in which b) they totally rock.

Fallout unlikely

With their latest album, "Infinity On High," topping the 2007 Billboard charts, Chicago pop-punkers Fall Out Boy spend 2007 teaching us the difference between a scene and an arms race.

Gym Class Heroes

They're MTV's Best New Artist of 2007, and they're always picked first for dodgeball.

Big Dog Daddy

Toby Keith unleashes his mega-successful album, "Big Dog Daddy," proving once again that his music is good for more than just selling Ford trucks.

Chris Brown

With acting appearances in "The OC," "Stomp the Yard," and "This Christmas," and a Grammy nomination for "Kiss Kiss," Chris Brown shows that he can do just about anything he pleases.

Plain White T's

Hey there, Delilah, are they America's hottest new band, or just a clever ad campaign for Fruit of the Loom?

Jason Michael Carroll

Carroll's single "Alyssa Lies" earns him Billboard's Top New Country Artist of 2007.

How to Carrie a tune

Carrie Underwood releases "Carnival Ride," which is certified double-platinum, and she is named Billboard's Best Country Artist of 2007.

The poor girl still struggles with algebra

At 18, Taylor Swift already has three No. 1 singles, one of which she wrote in 9th grade math class.

Featuring T-Pain

List the songs you liked this year, and T-Pain probably had something to do with one of them.

Daughtry dominates

Chris Daughtry gets four Grammy nominations and wins three American Music Awards, which he probably keeps next to his 4th Place American Idol trophy.

Pray for rain

Rihanna's single "Umbrella," featuring Jay-Z is named one of the 10 Best Songs of 2007 by "Time" magazine, and Rihanna earns six Grammy nominations in 2008.

Finger Eleven

We all seem to be struck by Finger Eleven's "Paralyzer," the band's second Top 40 hit in 5 years.

Unsigned and still major

Before signing with a record label, Soulja Boy built his following on YouTube and MySpace with a video demonstrating his "Soulja Boy" dance. Crank THAT!

Beyoncé still soaring

With her chart-topping singles and dazzling performance in the movie "Dreamgirls," R&B's leading lady shows us that she's still "irreplaceable."

POPULAR ALBUMS

Alicia Keys "As I Am"
Common "Finding Forever"
Kanye West "Graduation"
Timbaland "Timbaland Presents Shock Value"
Amy Winehouse "Back to Black"
Radiohead "In Rainbows"
Arctic Monkeys "Favourite Worst Nightmare"
Jay-Z "American Gangster"
Rihanna "Good Girl Gone Bad"
White Stripes "Icky Thump"

Avril doesn't like your girlfriend

Avril Lavigne's third album debuts at number one and her single "Girlfriend" rockets to the top of the Billboard charts. Keep your eyes on your guys, ladies.

Justin likes your girlfriend

What better way to impress the ladies than to release the "Deluxe Edition" of your No. 1 album and then put together a world tour that grosses over $100 million?

Popular before she was popular

Colbie Caillat was a MySpace Music phenom before her first single, "Bubbly," was widely released.

Shawty got low, low, low, low

Flo Rida's club-based single "Low" featuring T-Pain hits No. 1 and becomes a dance-floor jingle selling Apple Bottom Jeans and "boots with the fur."

MUSIC

Samsung Q1 Ultra

All the power of a PC, all the portability of a handheld. It plays music and movies, it runs Windows XP, and it looks oh-so-suave. This "little guy" just might revolutionize the contents of our backpacks.

Flytech Dragonfly

Tiny helicopters are yesterday's news. The Flytech Dragonfly is the world's first remote-controlled flapping flying machine, and it's a blast to play with.

The only way to go Blu-ray

Sure, you can watch Blu-ray discs on your PS3, but if you're serious about picture quality, the Pioneer Elite Blu-ray player could be the best thing to ever happen to your plasma screen.

POPULAR VIDEO GAMES

ROCK BAND

It's like Guitar Hero, but adds drums and vocals.

BURNOUT PARADISE

Blazing-fast race game with a wide-open map.

SUPER MARIO GALAXY

Super Mario in outer space!

Send it to my screen

The Slingbox throws your home television controls to any Internet-connected computer or cell phone. Now you can watch "Aqua Teen Hunger Force" on your phone, or surf channels from any couch in the world!

Games people play

Whether you want the expandability of the Xbox 360, the exceptional wi-fi and Blu-ray capabilities of the Playstation 3, or the four-player fun of the motion-sensing Nintendo Wii, there's no doubt that home game consoles are bigger and better than ever. And best of all, Guitar Hero III is available for all three platforms.

A little video for everyone

Apple totally redesigned the iPod nano from the ground up, making it shorter and wider. They also added video capability, so you can watch movies, TV shows and music videos on the go.

High interest R8

From Audi comes the all-new R8. Race inspired with its mid-engine design and high-revving 4.2 liter V8, the new R8 is not only powerful, it's also gorgeous enough to forgive its 15 mpg fuel rating.

This is your wake-up call

The iPod alarm clock from Boyaq is a pretty little bedside accessory that lets you wake up to your favorite song. And the remote-controlled snooze button practically guarantees that you'll never be on time for anything again.

Slide over here and look at these pix

The reason we have to have a Nikon CoolPix S51 is because we can create an in-camera slide-show set to our own music and view it on the huge 3-inch display.

Watch your back, iPod Touch

Samsung's P2 lets you watch movies, videos and pictures on a 3-inch touch screen, listen to MP3's or FM Radio, has Bluetooth connectivity and it's stylishly sleek.

Image is everything

Canon's latest PowerShot SD870IS is ultra-compact in looks only. It features a 3-inch display, 8-megapixel resolution, and face detection technology.

Spion Digital Binocular Camera

What did you expect from a company whose name rhymes with "Spy on?" Binoculars with a built-in digital camera can either get you great close-up shots or a restraining order. Use them wisely.

High-def Sony Handycam

Tired of lugging that big camcorder to the skate park? Sony's ultra-light and compact HDR-CX7 is the best way to capture high-def video on the halfpipe.

Apple's new flat-top

Apple's MacBook Air is the world's thinnest notebook - thin enough to fit in an envelope and slide under a door - and it may start a trend towards totally wireless laptops.

King of the shiny things

People stand in line for hours to get their hands on this highly anticipated cell phone from Apple. This über-gadget combines cell phone technology with a fully functioning touch-screen iPod. The iPhone contains tons of on-board features and looks unlike any other phone on the market, making it the must-have gadget of the year.

GADGETS

Barry Bonds breaks HR record

On August 7, 2007 Barry Bonds hits his 756th home run, breaking the all-time career home run record formerly held by Hank Aaron.

The Stanley Cup gets quacked

The Anaheim Ducks defeat the Ottawa Senators four games to one to win their first ever NHL championship trophy.

Mercury rises

The Phoenix Mercury defeat the Detroit Shock 108-92, clinching their first league title in Game 5 of the WNBA championship series.

Spurs stick it to Cavaliers

The San Antonio Spurs prove they can do no wrong as they defeat the Cleveland Cavaliers to win their fourth championship since 1999.

Pro before prom

Tadd Fujikawa is one of the youngest golfers to have competed in the U.S. Open, and at 16 announces that he is turning pro.

Yo! Adrian!

Former Oklahoma running back Adrian Peterson plays his first season in the NFL, where he sets a single-game NFL rushing record of 296 yards, and is named the league's Offensive Rookie of the Year.

Giants step on New England

The New York Giants upset the New England Patriots 17-14 to win Super Bowl XLII.

Gators bite back-to-back

The Florida Gators men's basketball team becomes the first college team ever to win repeat championships with the same starting lineup.

THIS YEAR'S CHAMPS

NBA: San Antonio Spurs
NFL: New York Giants
MLB: Boston Red Sox
NHL: Anaheim Ducks
MLS: Houston Dynamo
WNBA: Phoenix Mercury
Arena Football:
San Jose SaberCats
NASCAR: Jimmie Johnson
NCAA Football: LSU Tigers
NCAA Baseball:
Oregon St. Beavers
NCAA Men's Hoops:
Florida Gators
NCAA Women's Hoops:
Tennessee Lady Volunteers

Crazy year in the BCS

It's a system designed to calculate a college football team's ranking based on statistics. But until this year, the system never encountered so many upsets by low-ranking or un-ranked teams.

Makes Volunteer work look easy

The Lady Volunteers of Tennessee defeat Rutgers to win their 7th NCAA Women's Basketball championship.

Bench 'em like Beckham

He's head and shoulders above other players, but his injured knees and ankles kept him sidelined for much of his first season with the LA Galaxy.

Jimmie Johnson

With 10 wins in 2007, Jimmie Johnson is NASCAR's Nextel Cup Champion.

The New England Patriots have a perfect 18-0 record until they face the NY Giants in Super Bowl XLII.

The Boston College Eagles start their season at 8-0 for the first time since 1942, and go on to beat Michigan State in the Champs Sports Bowl.

The Boston Red Sox win the World Series, sweeping the Colorado Rockies in four games.

The boys from Beantown

Ray Allen, Paul Pierce and Kevin Garnett put the Celtics back in the NBA, and the Patriots winning streak is rubbing off on everyone from Boston College to the Red Sox. If you're a Boston sports fan, this is your year.

SPORTS

I'm NOT
A Plastic
Bag

I'm Not a Plastic Bag

Bringing along a reusable shopping bag reduces waste, and this trendy canvas bag by Anya Hindmarch is wildly popular on both coasts.

Earth-saving vows

This year a popular wedding trend was to have a "green" wedding. Brides and grooms are selecting organic caterers, hybrid limousines, and outdoor garden venues to help reduce our ecological footprint.

Reverb gets good feedback

Eco-friendly musicians turn to Reverb, a company founded by musician Adam Gardner of Guster (right), to help them plan greener tours. Reverb "greens" concert tours by providing biofuel for tour busses, biodegradable catering products, and on-site fan outreach.

Subaru, Lafayette Plant

Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.

The only trend that matters

Sure, what you wear, what you buy, and how you style your hair and make-up define the trends of the past year. But the biggest and most ubiquitous trend of 2008 is to "go green." No longer just a niche cause for "tree-huggers," environmentalism goes mainstream and everyone from brides-to-be to major corporations begin doing their part to radically re-think how we can function with less waste, less pollution, and a brighter future for our planet.

Drive a Hummer, plant a tree

"Carbon offsetting" is a method by which people and companies do good deeds such as building turbines, planting trees and converting methane into fuel to make up for the ozone-depleting CO2 generated by their energy-consuming lifestyles.

The big, green corporate machine

Big businesses across the globe have begun to radically re-think their operations. Subaru's plant in Indiana has achieved zero landfill status. Wal-Mart hopes to one day soon be supplied by 100% renewable energy. Hewlett-Packard, S.C. Johnson and Continental Airlines are among other corporations being applauded for their environmental efforts.

Could a Brushfire save the planet?

Musician Jack Johnson converts the offices and studios of his Brushfire record label into a model of ecofriendliness, with solar power, recyclable CD packaging and energy-saving air conditioners.

Changing light bulbs

Office buildings and schools everywhere are switching from fluorescent lights to Compact Fluorescent Lights or Light Emitting Diode bulbs. Both last 10 times longer than fluorescent bulbs and can reduce energy usage by 50-80%.
